TV Scholarships Offered; Classes Now On Air-Waves

by Lee Meckler

Two recent developments stemming from the University's recently inaugurated television, credit granting, college courses over WICC-TV, channel 43, have been made public by Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, vice-president of the university.

200 Attend Jewish Night; Rabbi Malenowitz Speaker At Initial Sociology Banquet

by Myra Seide

Jewish Night, the University of Bridgeport's first ethnic night of the year, was held Oct. 20, 1953, at the Ahavath Achim Synagogue, 725 Hancock Avenue.

Sociologists Meet; Trecker to Speak

The Connecticut State Conference of Social Work, at its annual meeting Thursday, November 12 at the Hotel Bond, in Hartford, has scheduled a special session from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. for all students interested in learning about the opportunities in and educational requirements for social work.

Dean Harleigh B. Trecker of the University of Connecticut School of Social Work is chairman of the meeting which will discuss "Social Work as a Profession." Panel members will include representatives from the American Association of Social Workers, the American Association of Group Workers, the American Association of Medical Social Workers, and the Association of School Social Workers. There will be a question and answer period and small group discussions for these students interested in particular social work positions. The Conference will provide descriptive literature and school of social work catalogs.

The meeting will be held in the Ballroom of the Hotel Bond and is open without registration fee for all students. It is an excellent opportunity for students to secure helpful information about the rapidly expanding profession of social work.

UB Organizing Gym Team Meet Monday: YMCA

The University of Bridgeport is organizing its first exhibitional gymnastic team according to an announcement by David A. Field, director of the Arnold College of Physical Education.

The purpose of the team is to provide another form of recreation for the student body and entertainment for local athletic and social functions. Any student, male or female, interested in gymnastics, tumbling, tap dancing, ballet, modern dancing, juggling or comedy is invited to contact Dr. Field at Cortright Hall.

The team meets at 8:00 p.m. Monday evenings at the Y.M.C.A., but it is expected that additional practice periods will be arranged on the campus in the near future.

Dr. Field is also interested in finding a master of ceremonies for the team's performances.

Two hundred people attended the dinner which was sponsored by the Sociology Colloquium. Guest speaker was Rabbi Moses Malenowitz, whose topic was "Explaining the Jewish Sabbath." The sub-topic of the evening was "The Sublime and the Joyful in Jewish Life."

Such delicacies as meat balls—Jewish style, stuffed germa, noodle casseroles, and apple struddle were served. The serving committee consisted of Joan Baumont, Gwen Cogan, Elizabeth Foy, Victor Gracere, Edward Kovac, Stan Lebak, Evelyn McGee, Angelo Miel, Robert Samuels, Ralph Scofield, Violet Sciallino, Hal Trishman, Robert Vossler and Edith Weeks.

Tickets were sold for $1.25 to members of the Sociology Colloquium and $1.50 for non-members. Diane MacDougall, president of the society, said the group would conduct three or four other "nights" during the semester honoring other nationalities.

Guests of honor at the first dinner were: Dean and Mrs. Earl Bigsbee, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Breiner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Breiner, Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Chapman, Mr. Harold Dart, Mr. Bernard Glaser, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Guy, Mr. John Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Klein, Dr. and Mrs. Littlefield, Mr. J. Melitz, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Neidelman, Miss Roslin Rappaport, Dean and Mrs. Read, Dean and Mrs. Clarence Ropp, Mr. and Mrs. Shalvoy, Mr. and Mrs. Anibal Sotomayor, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tutuli, and Miss Ann Whelan.

Television scholarships, made possible through the generosity of the Carlson Foundation, a well known friend of the university, have been made available for worthy students. The second development has increased the scope of the tele-classes to where they are re-broadcast over WICC (600 kc).

The donor for the unique type of scholarships, has made available money which will pay part of the television student's tuition and assist in the cost of conversion. The benefactor did not make public the amount of money donated, but he did indicate the fact that the sum will finance a substantial number of students.

In making the money available, the donor said, "The University of Bridgeport and WICC-TV deserve not only the commendation of this community for this venture in university education by television, but they deserve financial backing to help insure its success. I feel that the establishment of the first known television scholarships is one way to do this."

Scholarships are available to only those who are taking the courses on a credit granting basis. Interested persons may secure a scholarship application and further information by contacting the Television Extension Center of the University of Bridgeport, or by calling 6-3591.

Rabbi H. Nelson, Guest At Hillel Counselorship

With approximately 100 students in attendance, the first open meeting of the Hillel Counselorship, of the University of Bridgeport, was held on Oct. 21, at Fones Annex.

"What Is a Jew" was the topic of Rabbi Harry Nelson, guest speaker. A short question and answer period followed.

Dancing was held and cider and donuts were served after the meeting.

Additional Scholarships To Be Offered; Many Others Are Open To Students

A new scholarship donated by the Bridgeport chapter of the National Office Management Association (N.O.M.A.) has been added to the top of a long list.

Dean Eaton V. W. Read of the College of Business Administration, announced that a $25 award will be given to a graduating senior in the College of Business, who has demonstrated good scholarship and potential executive ability. N.O.M.A. also offers another award to an outstanding graduate of the Weylister Secretarial School.

Of current interest, especially to athletes, is the Sigma Phi Alpha Scholarship. This is a $100 prize presented every year to a male student, other than a freshman. The recipient must have a letter grade average of 'C' and must be outstanding in athletics. Application blanks for this may be obtained from the Office of the Director of Athletics, and may be submitted no later than October 31.

Students in the Bridgeport area should inquire about the Everett Cortright Scholarship. This is awarded to graduates of the six local high schools that appear to be promising students. The recipient will be given $275 a year for four years.

A complete summary of all scholarships and awards can be found in the UB catalogue. Contact Dr. D. Kern in the Admissions Office at Howland Hall for further information.

Mr. "D"—Stage Veteran Directs Thunder Again

by Bobbi Crane

Campus Thunder '54 will open at the Klein Memorial, November 20 with a capacity house expected. It will again be directed, for the seventh time, by Al Dickason.

Unrelenting work, insistence on perfection, and unexpoundable energy—that is Al Dickason, director of the Office of Campus Productions. And it is these qualities of the director that has accounted for Campus Thunder's growth from a one-nighter in 1947 to the gala extravaganza that it is today.

While attending Ball State College, Mr. Dickason took time out from his Business Administration courses to help write parts for his college shows. Upon graduation, he accepted a position as an accountant with the Ford Motor Company. A few years later, due to a "tip" from a friend, he applied for and received a position as scriptwriter for a New York radio show, "Clara, Lu and Elm." Mr. D. came to Bridgeport to teach accounting in 1946, little realizing that some day he would direct a production which would put Bridgeport U. on the map of the college entertainment world.

When the Junior College of Connecticut became the University of Bridgeport in 1947, he was asked to write a play to commemorate this affair. This was the first Campus Thunder production. He also produced the first Barnum Festival pageant, "The Barnum Diary," which is at present in the hands of a Hollywood producer, and has written short stories and plays. One of these, "The Masters Chair," which starred Ona Munson, Jorja Cortwright, and was directed by Frederick De Cordova, played the West Coast about three years ago to a sell-out audience.

For the past five summers he has worked as a director at the Lucille Lortell White Barn Theater, the only tryout theater accepted by the State of Connecticut for the teaching of dramatics in Connecticut.

Show business is his love—he talks it, he eats it, he lives it. A road tour by Campus Thunder is his dream. His directional qualities have made Thunder well-known throughout the East perhaps these same qualities can make Thunder famous throughout the country.

All students who wish to try-out for the UB radio programs (WICC and WNAB) are asked to contact Alfred Lepow at the Public Relations Office, 2nd floor, Cortright Hall. Selections will be made next week and will be based on competitive readings.

UB TV OK

With UB having completed two weeks of TV operation, the venture has proven more successful than the wildest hopes of the originators.

By scoring another first in giving college credit for TV courses, the University has brought honor and prestige, not only on itself, but on WICC-TV, Bridgeport, and the state of Connecticut.

Inquiries about our TV courses have come from all corners of the United States. Leading newspapers and magazines have played up every feature of our project. Much praise must be extended to those students, faculty members, school administrators, and the numerous others who have made our telecasts so successful.

It is now clear that what many called impossible will, in years to come, expand to greater heights. UB can be justly proud of its part in this new field of TV education.

GROW UP, KIDDO!

In the past week or so, someone of questionable character has taken great pleasure in defacing the walls of the girls' lounge in Alumni Hall.

It is indeed surprising that a person of college mentality would undertake such a childish act. This so called human being had better refrain from such action in the future, or she will find herself in real hot water.

Take a tip. Grow up a little, kiddo.

"It was a wonderful evening, Harold. Please don't spoil it by asking me out again."

Are U Hip On Ettakit? Man, Dig This Cool Book

Men — Does your girl get annoyed when you slurp your soup? Do you know the direction the spoon travels from the bowl to your mouth? Are you up to par on your tipping? If all this matters, then the thing for you to do is run down to your local bookstore and buy a new copy on etiquette for men.

Written by Bert Bacharach, the title of the book is, modestly enough, "Bert Bacharach's Book For Men." Bacharach is the Fashion Editor of Collier's, writer of the popular column for men called "Stag Lines," and a radio personality.

No longer need you worry about which salad plate is yours (the one on the left), how much to tip your barber (10% for a plain barber and nothing for the owner, or how to tip in a hotel (everyone who performs a service). The book should be at your local bookstore now.

Those wierdly costumed creatures seen about the campus are not people from another world, but just poor sorority and fraternity pledges. The pledging period, with its hazing, is traditional at the University. The good sportsmanship and friendliness engineered, produces an air of close-knit nuity of which everyone is a part.

Plans for ALPHA DELTA OMEGA's after Campus Thunder dance, THE FIRST NIGHTER, are being made. The first pledge party of the year was a "roaring" success . . . biggest pledge class ever.

After their great dance, ALPHA GAMMA PHILLES, and a host of their eastern alumni, continued the merry-making at a series of parties . . . AGP thanks those who made the dance the success it was.

BETA GAMMA is to hold its formal initiation November 1. Connie Moreno, BG pledge master, is making herself sound tougher than she really is . . . eh, Con??

What's this we hear about KAPPA BETA RHO's turning over a new leaf and holding a coke party . . . strange things are happening. On leave was past president Dave Rodgers who is trying to run the navy, too.

Big talk around the campus was PI OMEGA CHI's recent party

... WOW!! POC will terminate their pledging with a get-together at Sherm Levy's home in Westport.

SIGMA LAMDA CHI's Hell Night is to be held this Saturday. A closed dance for introductory purposes will be held the following week . . . Dave Ganim did a fine job as pledge master.

That hayride planned by SIGMA PHI ALPHA for Halloween night should be something. The fraternity executive board met with Mr. Petitjean and drew up a fine social calendar.

This year's THETA EPSILON Masquerade Ball shapes up to be one of the highlights of the season, according to Marion Campbell, social director . . . TE's pledging is to start in November.

Those wedding bells are raising Cain with THETA SIGMA. Russ Schatz is engaged to cute Russell Sage collegiate, Janet Bolliger . . . maybe Dick Watt has ideas along these lines too?

MAKE THIS YEAR'S CHRISTMAS
GIFTING RELIGIOUS REMEMBRANCES

"A Religious Gift Means More"

For the first time in many a long year, it looks as though an independent or residence hall team will win the intramural football title. An earlier prediction in this column picked Sigma Phi Alpha to win the championship for the second straight season; that prophecy is hereby rescinded. The battle will now be between Callahan AC and Park Hall.

It isn't very often that a columnist takes back what he puts in print, but in this case it is necessary. Intramurals have been running for two weeks now, and two of the five fraternities entered have forfeited once, and one of them, Alpha Gamma Phi, has forfeited twice, dropping them from the league. The only teams to show up regularly have been Pi Omega Chi and Alpha Phi Omega.

In past years the fraternities have dominated intramural play from the opening whistle of football, to the last cry of play ball in the spring. This year the story is of a different nature. Both POC and APO are at sub-par strength, and when he playoffs roll around in late November, look out!

As this story is being written, the "AC" and Park are undefeated, each owning three victories. Even with Herb Glines refusing to allow his basketball players to compete in IM play, Callahan has managed to triumph over Milford Hall, Marina Hall and Trumbull Hall. Led by "Al" State, Lou Pepe, Chuck Conte, Vito Montanelli and Tom Carroll, the "AC" has rolled up tremendous scores in all three outings.

Park Hall's success thus far is due to their defensive strength. In defeating their first three opponents, Park did not allow any of them to hit paydirt. Playing out of their 3-1-2-1 defense, the "Jr. Glinesmen" won 6-0, 20-0 and 24-0 over Trumbull, Marina and Milford respectively. The big difference in all three clashes was the heads-up defense of Mac MacAllister, Hans Schneider, Wes Sanislo, Don Burke and Bernie Milove.

If the fraternities don't watch their step, their long "reign of terror" will come crashing down in one of the greatest revolutions of all time. Last year POC walked away with the overall title, with the four runner-ups also being Greek organizations; but this is 1953-54.

All hope is not lost for the fraternities as yet, for a certain unquotable member of an anonymous group, known in this column as "the Yankees of UB," has stated that like their namesakes in the American League, they may not be picked on paper, but when it comes down to brass tacks, it's all ours.

Royalty To Meet Saturday As UB Faces St. Michaels In Battle of Purple Knights

by Don T. Burke

The first daylight encounter at Candlelite Stadium this year will be the setting for a somewhat confusing battle "royale" when the Purple Knights of Bridgeport ride against the Purple Knights of St. Michaels starting at 2 P. M. this Saturday. Last year St. Mikes pierced UB's armor, jousting them 39-6.

Park Hall, Callahan Post 3-0 Records In Intramural Play

Park Hall and Callahan AC moved into a tie for first place in the "B" intramural football league as both teams finished the week's play with three victories against no defeats. APO took over the "A" division leadership with a 2-0 slate.

Park kept their record intact by garnering their second and third shutouts of the season, dropping Marina Hall 20-0 and whitewashing Milford Hall 24-0. Wes Sanislo, "Mac" MacAllister and Hans Schneider were the stand-out performers for the Hall. MacAllister gathered in five TD passes from the arm of Schneider and Sanislo caught one scoring aerial and two extra points.

Led by "Big" John Kehoe, Callahan romped over Trumbull Hall 23-7. Kehoe scored 12 points on two passes from Chuck Conte and brought down a man in the end zone for a safety. Trumbull made the game close for a while as a "Ray" Raymond to George Book pass brought the score to 9-7, but Conte pitched to Joe Gus and Kehoe for two more TD's and the ball game.

The Vermonters who won the state championship in 1951, will be trying to regain the crown which they lost with last year's mediocre 4-3 record. Coach George "Doc" Jacobs will arrive with a team touted as not being as strong as the '51 edition but always a threat to run up a score. Little John Barbati, a returning senior, will be calling plays and passing out of the "T" while Ted Bergeron, an untried fullback before opening game, has developed into a dependable man for a first down buck. Scat backs Jim McKenna and Don Gallagher round out what Jacobs hopes will be the championship backfield.

Coach Walt Kondratovich will counter with his regular starting line-up plus the addition of Co-Captain John Anderson who is expected back at center.

Dave Deep, Anderson's replacement during the latter's nursing period, deserves a "well done" and a possible starting berth on next year's squad for his commendable play in the New Haven game.

In other games Milford edged Trumbull 6-0, ADO won on a forfeit from AGP, SPA forfeited to APO. AGP forfeited to SPA and POC won from ADO when the latter failed to show up.

UBooters Win In 4-0 Rout

Co-Captain Mike Belmont scored three goals and set up a fourth as the University of Bridgeport's soccer team beat Hillyer College of Hartford 4-0, last Friday at Seaside Park. Herb Rudolph scored the other UB marker. This victory brought the UBooters record for the season to 2-1.

Bridgeport goalie Wally Slavkin in turning in his first whitewashing of the young season, made 12 saves in the nets, but the big factor in the Knights victory was their defense led by Danny Katz and Co-Captain Bob Stevenson. Time after time the two fullbacks turned away Hillyer thrusts, forcing the red and white to take poor shots which were easily blocked by Slavkin. Hillyer's only real scoring threat came on a penalty shot by Bill Adams that was neatly saved by the UB netminder.

Saturday afternoon the Knights travel to South Orange, N. J. to meet a powerful Seton Hall outfit. Belmont, who now has seven goals in three games will be Coach John McKeon's big gun against the New Jersey Pirates. McKeon, who stated that the Knights looked a bit sloppy against Hillyer thought they were just getting a bad game out of their system and hopes for a fine showing against the Hall Saturday.

The scoring by quarters:
UB 1 2 0 1—4
1. Belmont on pass from Rudolph.
2. Belmont on pass from D'Allusio.
3. Rudolph on pass from Belmont.
4. Belmont on pass from Cochrane.

ALONG PARK PLACE

by Andy Demotzes

I was really surprised last week when I took a walk through the second floor ladies lounge in Alumni Hall. All the walls were covered with scribbling, and in lipstick no less. Alumni Hall was made possible by student donations, and is kept in condition with the student fee collected from every student. As you can see, it is really our own building; and we should take care of it accordingly.

So come on girls, let's leave the lipstick on the lips, and the writing to guys like me.

Bill Bevacqua an ex-air force man, takes the part of a dashing romantic pilot in one of the funnier scenes in the soon-to-be-viewed Campus Thunder. Along with Gil Strunk as his co-pilot, Bill gets into a romantic comedy situation in the cockpit of a plane, while Claire Knott portrays the captivating hostess both boys are after. This is only one of the many scenes that will be presented by the Knights of Thunder when that old lightning strikes and the Genie is back in business again this year.

Gus Lanardos, who was president of AGP until he left for the University of Connecticut this past semester, claims that only Greeks should be presidents of Greek fraternities.

It should be a lot of fun to see some of the crazy costumes that are bound to show up at the masquerade tomorrow night. Usually at this type of an affair, everyone dresses according to his or her deep, inner psychological dream of what he would like to be.

Can't you just see Hal Trischman dressed as a ras-turized bottle of milk (pure no doubt) . . . Carol Lind-nauer dressed as a POC brother . . . Fred Mills as a Cadillac salesman . . . D n Murphy dressed as "After" in one of those muscle building courses . . . and Sherm Levy as "Before" in the same course . . . June Fried as "Finnigan from the F. B. I."

So much for that. Time for a joke. Ready or not, here it is! UB accounting major . . . I'm planning to be a bank examiner. UB co-ed . . . Well, I'm no bank.

So much for accounting majors, though I must admit that they are as fine a bunch of guys as I have ever seen, and they have such a wonderful staff of instructors to teach them. (There, Mr. Chapman, I did what I promised.

Next week, Wes. . .
